From the Presbyter's Desk

Dear friends, greetings. By God's grace we have come to the last month of this calendar year. This is the most exciting month for Christians, irrespective of age and gender. The reason for all the excitement is that in this month we remember the birth of our Lord who came to this world as a Lamb, to be sacrificed for our sins and to give us eternal peace. It is because of that sacrifice, all those who have enjoyed this reality feel happy. During this season Christian homes are decorated and the happiness is shared with the neighbours by sharing of food and gifts. Most of the times the Christmas ends there.

Actually Christmas is about much more than just sharing warm emotions and memories. It's about what God supplies and shares not about what we share. Christmas is about God's faithfulness made tangible through history. It's about how God has touched our lives with his love.

The text Isaiah 52:7-10, is very often used during Christmas season. This text from Isaiah is a 2,500-year-old Christmas greeting from God. God originally sent this greeting to those Jewish people who were exiled in Babylon (present-day Iraq) in the sixth century B.C. The Lord also had the prophet send this greeting to the disparate handful of people who remained behind in Jerusalem, the once proud capital of the Jewish nation.

Can you imagine their mind-set? Whether they were hauled off to Babylon or remained in the ruins of Jerusalem – it must have seemed that their whole world was out of control. Their ancient homeland of Israel, once promised to their ancestor Abraham and his family, was destroyed. Their worship life was in shambles. In fact, the temple, built by great King Solomon, had been trashed and torched by the armies of Babylon. There must have been an ache in their hearts as these people prayed to God.

God sent a greeting of hope to these hopeless people. The good news to these hopeless people was “the Babylonian exiles would return back home to Jerusalem. He would establish peace”. And so, messengers ran ahead from Babylon back to Jerusalem proclaiming this wonderful news, “Mom and dad are coming home! Babylon is conquered! The exile is over!” What a message for those who had nothing! Families would be united.

We can relate to this Christmas greeting to our life because in reality we are a people who have nothing to feel proud about it. As we stand before God we see our sins are the cause for a spiritual exile. We may have Christmas lights and presents. We may have the things that provide temporary pleasure, and we might think that’s enough. Our sinful hearts may think it’s enough, but that’s not enough. Such things cannot fill our hearts with peace. That is not what Christmas is. For Christmas is nothing, and we have nothing, if we don’t have God’s greeting of “good tidings.”

The God of history, our all-powerful and merciful God, intervened in the world scene for us all. He has made it possible for us to have peace. The Christmas angel came to the shepherds that first Christmas announcing, “Peace on earth!” And God has sent his Christmas greeting to us, “Peace on earth and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled!” That’s what Christmas is all about. And that’s just what we need. God gives us what we need right here in his holy Word. He gives us a message of hope and love, and he gives us the ability to receive and believe it.

The Lord who brought back the Jews from exile is interested in redeeming us from the slavery of Satan and give us peace. Though He is interested, it is our responsibility to listen to His voice and obey. If we obey and accept him as our Saviour and reconcile with HIM, God would live in our hearts and would help us to enjoy the peace which this world cannot give us.

I wish you all a very very happy and peaceful Christmas.

Rev. K. Azariah

Priest-in-Charge

Messages from the Pulpit

Sunday, 6th November 2022, the message was given by our presbyter Rev Dr Kenseelan Azariah. Being Thanksgiving Sunday, the theme of his message was “Thanksgiving”. Mat 3: 10, Luke 24: 30, Ps 99: 4, Dan 6: 10.

How do we thank God?

1) Let us thank God for His salvation and repent for our past sins. Zachaeus, repented and rectified his past Luke 19.

2) By bringing our offering to the Lord we are blessed, Lev 23: 10.

3) By helping the needy. Matt 25: 40.

Be kind to the poor, Prov 19: 17 for it is like giving to the Lord. Give cheerfully.

Sunday, 13th November 2022, the message was given by Revd Dr K Azariah.

Theme: “God works in unexpected ways to fulfil his purpose”.

Jonah 3: 10 – 4: 11, Ps 31, 19-34, 2 Cor 12: 1 – 10, Luke 19: 1 – 10.

God's purpose is that no one should perish. God is gracious, his compassion us never fails. He has unexpected plans for us. Gen 8: 21, Lam 3: 22.

We must believe in God without doubting to receive His blessing, for power is with the Lord.

Jesus raised Lazarus from the grave. We must believe in Jesus the resurrection and life.

Sunday, 20th November 2022 – Harvest Festival, the message was given by our Bishop, the Rt Revd Andrew Rathod.

It was also the Festival of Christ the King. The theme of his message was “The Harvest”.

Isaih 28: 14 – 17, Ps 77: 3, 7 – 8, 10 – 14, Phil 3 : 17 – 41, Lk 23 : 32 – 43

God is the source of all our blessings and we need to be grateful to Him.

Deut 8: 6, Do not forget God when you are satisfied. Don't murmur like the Israelites. Love one another, God will multiply our blessings.

Sunday, 27th November 2022 – the message was given by Revd Dr Kenseelan Azariah.

Theme: “Be prepared at all times for the Lord's appearing.”

Isaiah 2: 2 – 4, Ps 96: 7 – 13, Rom 13 : 11 – 14, Matt 25 : 1 – 13.

He said like the five wise virgins we need to be prepared for the Lord's coming at all times. We must heed to the Gospel message or else when Jesus comes, we may not dwell with Him. “He is coming soon”. During this Advent season let us prepare for the coming of the Lord.
